

open up

open up like a flower
every second minute and hour
in your arms
growing stronger
in your arms
stay forever
in your arms
no danger
just a dance
of happenstance

open up your smile
every footstep yard and mile
in your eyes
growing stiller
in your eyes
no fear to figure
in your eyes
takes longer
in your eyes
future
just a chance of circumstance

open up and draw me in loosen up
these chains i'm in
i want to fly
straight into your arms
i want to fly
again

in your arms
growing stronger
in your arms
stay forever
in your arms
no danger
just a dance
of happenstance
